PRESS RELEASE

MONARCH CEO TO OUTLINE VIEW ON BREXIT AT AVIATION CLUB UK

Andrew Swaffield, CEO of leading independent airline group, Monarch, is the latest airline head to speak at the Aviation Club of the UK.

At a luncheon on Thursday 28 April, Mr Swaffield is expected to outline the airline group's views on 'Brexit' and discuss the turnaround of Monarch which was purchased by investment group Greybull Capital from the Globus Travel Group in 2014. The event is to be held at the Institute of Directors in Pall Mall, London.

Jane Johnston, chairman of the Aviation Club said: "Monarch has been in business for nearly 50 years and exemplifies the importance of adapting to meet changing demands. Our members and their guests will be looking forward to hearing what Andrew has to say about the airline's future, whether or not we remain in the European Union."

Monarch is a leading UK independent airline group which includes a scheduled airline, in-house tour operator and an award-winning engineering division. Flying from five UK bases - London Gatwick, Birmingham, Manchester, Leeds-Bradford and Luton where it is headquartered; the airline offers 7 million sector seats to leisure destinations.
